Air Tiger Express Announced New CEO

Air Tiger Express Companies, Inc. ("ATE Group"), a Delaware USA corporation, today announced its new Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"). Effective immediately, Mr. Richard Chu, the Company's founder will step down from the position of CEO, and its current President and Chief Operating Officer, David (Zhengzhou) Xiao will take the position of President and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Chu will continuously remain as the Chairman of the board of ATE Group.

David Xiao joined ATE Group in October, 2009 after many years of executive tenure at K-Line, one of the largest ocean carriers in the world. In his announcement for David's promotion to CEO, Mr. Chu commented "during this brief period, David has already demonstrated his leadership quality to all ATE associates with his shared vision and relentless hard work" and said further "he will succeed in bringing ATE Group to next level of excellence in this challenging economic period"
